

How to use “G-port” (Syllabus Viewing System)

G-Port is the system for course registration and syllabus viewing.

To check the course syllabus, follow the steps below.

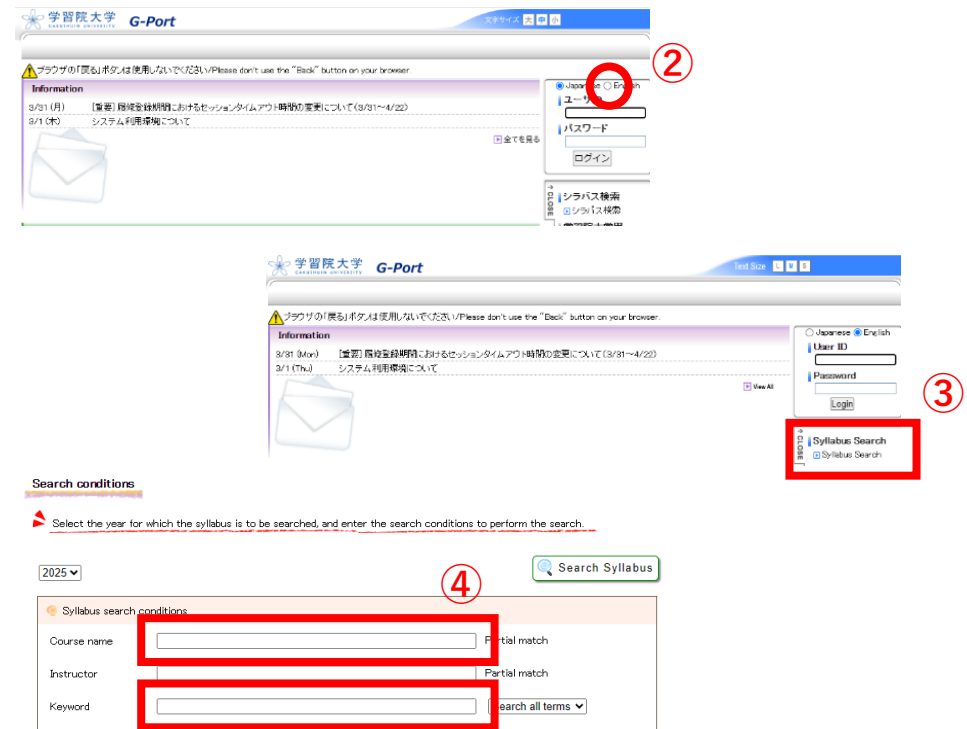

① Access the link

https://g-port.univ.gakushuin.ac.jp/campusweb_gk/slbssrch.do

② Select “English”

③ Click on “Syllabus Search”

④ Enter information in “course name” or “keyword” of other fields, then click “Search Syllabus.”

The image shows three screenshots of the G-Port system interface, illustrating the steps to access the syllabus search function:

- Step 1: The user is on the G-Port login page. The “English” language selection button is circled in red.
- Step 2: The user is on the G-Port login page. The “Syllabus Search” link in the bottom right corner is circled in red.
- Step 3: The user is on the “Syllabus Search” page. The “Course name” and “Keyword” input fields are circled in red.

Many courses do not have an English syllabus available.
